Customer Reviews

This one is one of the best you will never regret from purchasing it. I advised not to be using by non professional because it may cut your finger Nice and valuable. good memory. good product with high quality. my parents need it,

I like this book, it has many interesting facts. Mummies are found all over the world in different forms. In Egypt, Important people, like kings were made mummies, even their cats were worshiped and made into mummies. Egyptian mummies are the most famous mummies that most people know about. I Learned that mummies are also found in South America, the Chinchorros were the first people to make mummies on purpose. Many other places in the world mummies can be found that were made by accident from nature. Natural mummies are caused by being frozen, dried out in desserts or even in bogs (swamps). I also learned that mummies that scientist have studied can teach us about how they lived. I found it very interesting .
