To Live Is Christ To Die Is Gain

Synopsis

Using Paul's radical letter to the Philippians as his road map, Matt Chandler forsakes the trendy to invite readers into authentic Christian maturity. The short book of Philippians is one of the most quoted in the Bible, yet Paul wrote it not for the popular sound bites, but to paint a picture of a mature Christian faith. While many give their lives to Jesus, few then go on to live a life of truly vibrant faith. In this disruptively inspiring book, Chandler offers tangible ways to develop a faith of pursuing, chasing, knowing, and loving Jesus. Because if we clean up our lives but don't get Jesus, we've lost! So let the goal be Him. To live is Christ, to die is gain "this is the message of the letter. Therefore, our lives should be lived to Him, through Him, for Him, with Him, about Him "everything should be about Jesus.

Customer Reviews

has got more convince that To love is Christ and to die is gain!

Excellent book. I have been a fan of Chandler for quite a while but this is the first book of his that I have read and it is great. It operates as a commentary on the book of Philippians but from a personal and practical perspective, as opposed to commentary on the historical background of the text. Great read for one's own spiritual growth or for a group study.

I love Matt Chandler's way of teaching - rich in scripture and practical as well. He touches on good foundational topics in this book. I've read and studied Philippians at least a few times and Matt Chandler's book is a great compliment to God's word. Was sharing excerpts with friends while reading also & was impactful. Holy Spirit definitely used this book to speak!

what a gift these men bestow upon us as they bring the message that bridges Paul's imprisonment with the converts and their world in Philippi. we are able to identify with them and therein take God's message to heart.

This book has many lessons for the generation of today. I love the way the book talks about the practice of "discernment" and how we must practice it. This book gives you a fine example on when you should praise God not only in the good times but also in times of struggle and sadness. Most of all the whole reason for this book is the magnificent explanation on how we must live and walk as Christ did on this earth, and of course To die is gain because we will see our heavenly master! Thank you Matt Chandler.

Awesome book. Really made me think about the supreme sacrifice Christ made to pay for my sin. I would recommend it to anyone wishing to grow in the Christian faith.

This study of Paul's letter to the church at Philippi, is an excellent book for both the new Christian and the mature Christian. There are plenty of insights in this book for the Christian to learn or remember and follow in living the Christian life. Everyone should read this book.

I've been working through this book with a small group in church. I'm a big fan of Chandler and went into the study not knowing what to expect from his writing. I have to say, I think I prefer his preaching to his writing. Not that it's bad, but sometimes it feels too casual or like he's struggling to translate what he's thinking/visualizing onto the page. That said, it's an enjoyable and at insightful read, definitely a good book to study with other believers.
