Easy & tasty recipes

Soups, salads and sandwiches . . . oh my. So many great recipes. Yummies for the tummy! !!!

MMMM MMMM good....

Well, it's not very Mediterranean. And if you dislike avocado, like I do, the book is almost pointless. A large portion of these recipes call for avocado, which is from Mexico/South America/Caribbean... not found in any traditional Mediterranean recipes, and not found in any traditional Mediterranean restaurants. There are also recipes calling for quinoa (South American) and turkey (Americas). This is really a fusion cuisine book based on the nutritional composition of the traditional Mediterranean diet. The title does include "inspired by the Mediterranean diet", so I guess I shouldn't be disappointed that it's so un-Mediterranean. Also, for a 'diet' book, there's no nutritional information included, which is odd. There are a couple decent-looking recipes (that don't call for avocado), but in all, it's not worth the price when I can find much better recipes online by cooks who aren't obsessed with avocado.
