I think this book is great for improvisers who have trouble reading bass clef in hymn books. However, I had purchased it for a younger student who is Catholic and she didn't recognize many of the songs. However, as a Protestant and long time church musician, I did.

This is a good book. I've already used it to play several songs on my guitar and hopefully will use it as I learn the keyboard. Like any good "fake" book it is kept simple allowing for you to add anything you think is missing. The first time I heard about a "FAKE" book was from a studio musician who used one in the 70's for pool parties and even used it in the studio when recording some songs. If you're looking for music that plays a full score of the song you want, this is not that book. If you want a book with the melody and some simple chords, this is a great book and I also find my eyes straying to the songwriter and year it was written. Interesting to see and if you know some church history you can, on occasion, see the connection.

It has an amazing amount of songs but after having it for 4 days, the plastic comb came loose. Now I have the issue of how to keep all the songs together IF I keep it. The book is far too huge for a plastic comb. Also, it's fairly small print. The book is also quite heavy & ponderous.

I love this edition of a Hymn Fake Book! Anytime I decide to play a certain Hymn on my guitar for Church and choose a song out of my Baptist Hymnal, I pretty much can find that song in this book. The chords are easy and you have the melody to play along on the piano if you have any doubts. Absolutely love this book and I do not regret this purchase!

As a church organist, I love this book and use it often, especially for music before and after Mass. You'll need to know how to improvise with chords, because it is only the treble line and chords. Really wide selection of hymns, mostly traditional and old favorites.

Excellent quality product and customer service! I highly recommend them both!

Looking for those pieces that are just NEVER in hymn books??? Almost NOTHING you can't find in here.

I am a jazz pianist filling in for the organist on short notice. Perfect! The congregation may never know the difference. Also I was able to invite a member of the congregation who plays guitar to play with me. Also Bravo ..arrived in 12 hours..2 hours before the meeting with the pastor.mh
