Customer Reviews

I really enjoyed reading this book because it was filled with helpful information about what to do when involved in a car accident. This book answered so many of my questions and gave me many helpful tips. I learned the inside scoop of how insurance companies operate and why not to trust them. I found that this book gave me confidence and I knew exactly what steps to take after being involved in an accident. I would highly recommend this book to anyone who is involved in an auto accident. I give it a two thumbs up!!!

Getting into a car accident is a very upsetting and stressful time in someone's life. When your car is damaged, you are in pain and you have insurance companies calling it can all be very overwhelming. This book helps guide you through the process and makes it much easier to understand and far less stressful. I would highly recommend it to anyone who needs help after their car accident!

The book is very enlightening for someone who does not know the process or what to do after a car accident. I recommend this book to anyone who wants to be informed. Very easy to read and understand.

This book is a helpful and useful tool if you or a friend is in a jam with an auto accident that they were involved in, would definitely recommend this book to anyone.
