50 States, 5,000 Ideas: Where To Go, When To Go, What To See, What To Do

Synopsis

This richly illustrated book from the travel experts at National Geographic showcases the best travel experiences in every state, from the obvious to the unexpected. Sites include national parks, beaches, hotels, Civil War battlefields, dude ranches, out-of-the-way museums, and more. You'll discover the world's longest yard sale in Tennessee, swamp tours in Louisiana, dinosaur trails in Colorado, America's oldest street in NYC, and the best spot to watch for sea otters on the central California coast. Each entry provides detailed travel information as well as fascinating facts about each state that will help fuel your wanderlust and ensure the best vacation possible. In addition to 50 states in the U.S., the book includes a section on the Canadian provinces and territories.

During three decades as a editor, writer, and photographer, JOE YOGERST has lived and worked on four continents—Asia, Africa, Europe, and North America. His writing has appeared in National Geographic Traveler, Conde Nast Traveler, Travel + Leisure, Islands magazine, the New York Times (Paris), and numerous National Geographic books. During that time, he has won four Lowell Thomas Awards, including one for Long Road South, his National Geographic book about driving the Pan American Highway from Texas to Argentina.

fair .. could be more off the beaten path .. but has some interesting stuff

Nice overview of state highlights when you are looking to travel

Looking forward to using this book to plan trips in the RV.

Lots of great info/ideas for on the road.

Love the book. Can not wait to start taking some trips with this book.

Haven't gotten all the way through it, but seems to be extensive and worth the money.

Informative and interesting.....

Great
