Great source of information!

Oh, this is awesome! If you're on a diet, you need to stay away. Far, far away! And, really, stay away from my house because we have been having so much fun cooking this stuff! The resident nine-year-old and I spent much of this weekend cooking goodies from this book. There are wonderful pictures, easy to follow recipes, great little tips, and so much delicious, high calorie, seriously bad for you food! We made the monte cristo squares, fried Coca Cola (yes, we did!), shakes, and fried guacamole. And we're going to be making so much more. The book includes adult beverages, as well as kid friendly ones, fried everything, and even a recipe for those giant Turkey legs. We can't keep doing this every weekend - I'll need to buy bigger clothes - but when you need a treat, these fun and easy to follow recipes are terrific!

I have all of George's cookbooks - each one is a treasure! He is so talented and his books are so interesting (and his recipes easy to follow for a novice cook/baker like me) Do yourself a favor and give yourself a holiday gift of his entire collection. (And now I can't get his cheesecake cookbook out of my thoughts - guess I'd better go make a George cheesecake!)
