Scandinavian Christmas

Synopsis

Celebrate Christmas Scandinavian style—where every day from the first Advent Sunday to the end of December is part of the holiday. Trine Hahnemann serves up a cornucopia of festive recipes for brunches, cocktail and tea parties, lunches, and dinners, all filled with traditional goodies and delicious modern dishes. Enjoy regional specialties such as spiced gløgg wine, Slow-Cooked Goose with Apples and Prunes, Kale Salad with Pomegranate, Caramel Potatoes, Meatballs with Pickled Beets, and Chocolate-Dipped Candied Oranges. Skål!

Trine Hahnemann has written five cookbooks in her native Danish and two in English, The Scandinavian Cookbook (Andrews McMeel) and The Nordic Diet (Skyhorse). Hahnemann started out as a caterer for rock stars, including Elton John, the Rolling Stones, and Bruce Springsteen, and today owns and runs a café in Denmark's House of Parliament as well as several large corporate cafés. An advocate for sustainable and organically sourced food, Hahnemann also writes for zesterdaily.com and appears regularly in magazines and newspapers in the US, Britain, and Denmark. To learn more, visit trinehahnemann.com. She lives in Copenhagen.

I have all three of Ms. Hahnemann's English language cookbooks (also including The Scandinavian Cookbook and The Nordic Diet), and they always seem particularly heartfelt guides to finding and celebrating well, the truly important things in life. They are filled with beautiful photography both of the Scandinavian landscape as well as of finished recipe products, which are uniformly unique and excellent. I can't recommend Trine Hahnemann's books more highly!

Great book to explore danishfood no hoiday traditions. Very happy with my purchase

I love, love, love this cookbook. It brought me back home eating the foods made from the recipes of this cook book. It also made our Christmas more delightful for my family. I made beautiful memories cooking and baking with my 2 younger daughters. I will use this cookbook for years to come!

I found this book most enjoyable. The recipes are delicious looking, the text interesting and the photos gorgeous. The recipes for the pull bread and spiced cake were excellent. The recipes in the book are mostly Danish, so if you are looking for Swedish or Norwegian recipes, you'll have to learn about Danish Christmas foods, not a difficult task at all!

Loved this book! So many great ideas!

Very enjoyable read.

Something new to add to our list of holiday favorites. Great choices, simple, easy to follow (not super easy, just not difficult at all). Will use this book every year.

I am looking forward to using the cookbook and cooking Scandinavian food
