Customer Reviews

Good and thoughtful story line, but horrible cadence in the rhymes. It was a painful book to read for that reason.

My grand kids (2 1/2 and 5) are both captivated over and over

My toddlers love this funny book!

Funny adventure good art work

Who would think an earthworm could be the star of a story? This quick witted little worm has quite an adventure. A typo or two but doesn't take away from the story. Preschoolers will love this book with the imaginative pictures.

I thought that this had a great way of teaching young kids of how and why they should not let fear stop them in their tracks but to think of how they might be able to overcome problems that could come up onto their lives and how to perhaps get out of these problems like this young worm did except of course avoiding clean his room and doing his chores. Therefore, I would like to recommend this for five stars as well as for kids ages 0-10 or in grades P-5. I received this ebook for free using KU, and now in return, here is my honest review. Super Work V! By Angela

Cute. Not too long. Good story.

My grandchildren loved the book, I have read it several times to them. They are 6 and 4
