Was a gift for my brother to find out how much all those baseball cards from his youth are worth.

Love it!!

Very Happy will do it again.

Gotta say, first off...this is the 6th edition and I have owned all six. There is a ton of information that these people put into these editions, as they are very large. This 6th edition is for the vintage cards, 1863 thru 1980 only. I have always been very pleased with these. I have a very large sports card and memorabilia collection and these prove invaluable...until this edition, #6. I was going through some cards by the name of Zeenut, the years made were 1911 to 1938, I was fine until I hit 1925...Then, they stopped! I called the publisher and they said they would look into it....and they did...to tell me that they could not see how that happened! oooookaaaay. After a second call, they said they considered the case closed. So I have an incomplete book. NOW, many folks would not even need this area for their collections. I did not look page by page for any other problems, but for this edition, was cool enough to understand and see if another one would help...sent it free of charge, but when I opened it up, same info was missing. So, after a nice chat with the folks, I think they were going to put a hold on the selling of this item, and check the publisher. So if you need to order this, and you do not need to check your Zeenuts...uhhmm, it may be alright for you.
