Love Over Moon Street

Synopsis

Life on Moon Street has reached a crisis for Victoria Seaborn. Her poetry: bad. Her job: bad. Her girlfriend: bad, bad, bad. It's time to reboot her life. New neighbor Sparky McAllister could be just the woman to revive Victoria's fortunes, but Sparky is working on an unwelcome reboot of her own—and Victoria is exactly the kind of distraction she has sworn to avoid. Will it be a bad moon or a love moon rising over Moon Street? 2nd edition

Customer Reviews

Anytime I pick up a Saxon Bennett book I'm expecting a fun, hilarious story where drinking is generally not a good idea for fear of it coming out of my nose from laughter. As typical the book is full of odd, quirky, and sometimes insane cast of characters with funny events and witty dialogue. But underneath the fun package is a story about fidelity, starting a family, parenthood, adoption, and domestic violence that will make you laugh, scowl, and cheer. The whole thing with Pen was especially heartwarming (I didn't tear up I had dust in my eye). Those that like this book should give the Chase Banter series a try and vice versa since they are all pretty similar.

Loved loved loved this book. The humor, the terrific setting, the characters. Christ in a bike! Loved the characters! All of them. It has the ring of the early Tales of the City and I wanted more. Terrific.

When I can laugh out loud and get visuals while reading a book it is definitely a 5 star for me.....

Per usual Saxon Bennett has written a fantastic, laugh-out-loud fun fest with great character development. She always tells a great fun yarn and this one was no different - entertainment with heart in the best possible sense.

I LOVE a story that will make me laugh out loud, and this one did that and more. The characters are great, hilarious, interesting, and make this story a new favorite of mine.

Very,very,funny!

I really enjoy the humor.

Saxon Bennett's books are always wonderful. She has a wonderful sense of humor. She will make you laugh out loud!
