A dramatization of well-known Bible stories that is aimed at the elementary school child, this audio lesson is organized around the concepts of trust, faith, obedience, forgiveness, courage, and jealousy. The stories selected are well known and appropriately illustrate each topic. The overzealous production will seem overbearing to the adult ear--full of sound effects, overly dramatized, with many corny asides and other embellishments. Yet for a school-aged child, trapped in a car for example, it might be fabulously entertaining as well as enlightening. For anyone who appreciates the wisdom found in the Bible and who wants to share it with the kids.
