Customer Reviews

This book is choc full of information about Dallas and environs with a particular nod towards kid friendly destinations. The tips on travel and enhancing the educational and cultural enjoyment for your children is invaluable for travel with children to any destination. The whimsical illustrations and informational photographs add to the enjoyment of this book. An enthusiastic thumbs up and recommendation to anyone looking for fun and educational diversion with their children!

Love this book! We've lived in Dallas for more than 6 years and I had no idea how much the city had to offer! Are We There Yet? Dallas guides you to awesome kid-friendly attractions and even has a section on free offerings. I love the random Texas facts (did you know armadillos always have 4 babies at a time?) and the witty, honest feedback about each destination. I hope the Houston guide isn't too far behind! Thanks for planning out my Summer!
