Indestructibles: Baby Night-Night

Synopsis

It's the little series that could: Indestructibles are innovative books built for the way babies read. Printed on a unique, nontoxic, paperlike material that holds up to anything babies throw at them, Indestructibles are rip proof, chew proof, drool proof and gum proof. They're 100% baby safe and they're washable. When a book gets dirty, just throw it in the dishwasher or washing machine, and voilà, the book is back and ready for more. Featuring the second set of titles by Kate Merritt, whose distinctive and colorful collage illustrations are as adorable to parents as they are to babies, here is a new Indestructibles that is a joy to read aloud. Baby Night-Night makes the bedtime ritual—putting on pajamas, reading a story, and the good-night kiss—a special time for parents and children. Simple, engaging text encourages language development, and each spread is filled with sweet details.

Kate Merritt is a France-based artist who's worked on numerous children's magazines and illustrated picture books. Amy Pixton, a mother of triplets, created Indestructibles after bits of traditional board books found their way into her babies' mouths. Amy lives in Kansas City with her husband and their three children.

Bought this book at Target and loved that it's 'Indestructible'. My 8 month old has chewed and crumpled this book and it still hasn't been wrecked. I was so happy with it that I bought Baby Peekaboo at Target also. As I was ordering something else thru I decided to order 6 more of these books. SO disappointed!! The other six I bought have NO story or words. Just pictures. Then when I read on , it does say that the nursery rhyme is printed on back. Not a fan of that. I honestly would not have bough those had I known there were no words or story. We have the 2 mentioned above, along with Baby Faces, Hey Diddle Diddle, Baby Babble, Wiggle March, Mama and Baby, and Creep Crawl. If I was buying agin I would get Baby Night Night, Peekaboo Baby and Baby Babble. The rest were not what I was expecting.

These books are wonderful and my 9 month old grandson chews on them, wads them up, loves to make the crinkle sound with the pages and sleeps with a couple of the books nearby! They make great gifts and are easy to mail. I want my grandson to live books and these are a great introduction to the wonderful world of books!

There really isn't much to the book to be honest. I was a little dissapointed in that fact. But so far it appears that it is indestructible as described. My daughter has eaten it, bent it, spilled formula on it and it is still here. The main reason I bought these books was for that reason, I didn't like the paper coming off other board books after she put them into her mouth. So far I'm happy I ordered them, let's just hope they withstand years of baby/toddler abuse.

We love the Indestructibles, we've had them in the bath, in the diaper bag, everywhere and they hold up. Grown men have tried tearing them and failed. A friends book came in the mail and was crumpled, after spending the night under a heavy book it was flat as it could be! She gets practice turning real pages and I get peace of mind knowing I don't have to go finger fishing in her mouth for wadded paper.

Baby loves these book! I don't know what this material is, but it's definitely mom's best friend. CHEW proof, slobber proof, no mess, dries clean. I keep one in the car and one in the pack n play. HE loves to crunch, chew and try to destroy it, and then I just flatten it out on the edge of a table and it's good as new again!

I love these indestructibles books. More importantly, my 10 month old son loves them. I tossed a couple in the diaper bag for a while(super light), because he enjoyed looking at the pictures and, sometimes, kissing the babies featured on the pages. Too cute. I was surprised that he never chewed the pages. I guess I should have bought the books a few months ago. Nonetheless, he does put the indestructibility to the test. He tries his best to rip the pages. No luck. I am happy with this purchase. Please note that the books are very thin (and portable). Someone described them as pamphlet-like, which sort of works. For me, they are perfect. Even the lack of story doesn't matter, because my son uses it like a toy.

My little one loves this, it gives her the perfect outlet for her desire to chew on paper. The story for this one isn't what we really were wanting for a goodnight baby. But I will be buying more in the other versions.

I love these books and so does my daughter. They really do seem to be indestructible! The illustrations are really cute and the children featured are diverse. They're great for pointing out daily life objects and talking about new words. They're awesome for the car and to carry in the diaper bag since they're super light weight. I have washed them in warm soapy water to reshape them and let them air out and they came out perfect. I've purchased several different ones. Love them!
