Racial Unity Of The Ancient Egyptians And Nubians

RACIAL UNITY OF THE ANCIENT EGYPTIANS
AND NUBIANS

Synopsis

The skeletal remains, mummies, hair, and art of the ancient Egyptians show that they were similar to Nubians. The art of the ancient Egyptians shows that had the same variation in facial features and complexion that we see in Nubian art. It cannot be denied that the ancient Egyptians and Nubians belonged to the same race. This is a continuation of the work of Professor Cheikh Anta Diop using mainly information that was not available in his time.

Gert Muller should be commended for writing about this subject matter, which is still at the center of dispute in Egyptology. I would like to see him do more of an analysis of the meaning of KMT, according to the Mdw Ntr. Chapter 3 needs to be updated at some point, after he has a chance to further research the meaning of KMT. KMT according to our ancient ancestors, means the Black city; settlement, or community. Charles Grantham gives a good analysis in his collection of essays, The Battle for Kemet.

Amazing book. Really does a good job debunking history with proof. I would definitely recommend buying this book. It is a great read

Provided accurate and insightful view of history

very good book, should be in the school system. wish blacks could unite in one country, let alone across boundaries as we did historically.

Read, research - get the lies out of your mind and psyche. Great addition to my library!
