PreS-Gr 1Ã¢â€a Trivia about U.S. states is divided into five sections. Each spread includes tidbits on state animals, transportation, food, activities, and celebrations. The states are organized alphabetically, and the facts tend to wander off the beaten path. For example, where steamboats might have gotten a mention for Louisiana, tugboats are featured instead. Obscure festivities are highlighted, such as Colorado's Mike the Headless Chicken Festival and Minnesota's Gammel Dag Fest. Cardboard pages make this selection perfect for the younger set. Each state's box is a different hue than its neighbor, resulting in quite a color romp. "See if You Can SpotÃ¢â€a" sidebars are interspersed. Ending with a 24-piece puzzleÃ¢â€a a map of the United StatesÃ¢â€a this is a great gift book. VERDICT A lighthearted and fun-filled ride through the United States, ideal for browsers or patrons embarking on a road trip. •Anne Chapman

The book was amazing. I gave the book as a gift. The child was just starting to learn about the US and was very excited.
